

GENESIS INTERNATIONAL, INC.

DELUXE SCBA ENCLOSURE PART NUMBER 87-0010

OVERVIEW

The Deluxe SCBA Enclosure for self-contained breathing apparatus Permanently stores SCBA in user-ready position. Stainless steel hinges come standard to help protect against theft and will not rust. The enclosure has a durable seal around the door that protects the SCBA equipment in damp atmospheres. It has a viewing window for easy identification of contents.

The wall storage case is designed for use in harsh environments. Our ABS structural foam wall cases come with a host of standard features—positive seal gasket, corrosive-resistant internal metal components and stainless steel external metal parts—that sets us apart. With 5.2 cu ft. of internal storage space and a variety of retaining straps, shelves or brackets, The Genesis wall case easily allows for large apparatus, respirators, protective gear, instruments or similar equipment.
